SferaProducts

Sfera create beautiful tools for everyday life, making daily tasks seem less ordinary. Our range of products is inspired by the natural world, shaped by organic forms and painted in colours provided by the earth itself.

We balanced nature with the efficiency of the manmade world, crafting chic furniture, ceramics, kitchenware and home accessories for the urban interior.

Made from time-honoured materials and crafted with natural textures, Sfera's designs are as pleasing to the eye as they are to the hand.

SferaFurniture

The SferaFurniture collection is designed by the Swedish group of designers and architects known as Claesson Koivisto Rune. By working collaboratively with Sfera, they create contemporary interpretations of the Japanese spirit as seen through Scandinavian eyes. Drawing inspiration from traditional Japanese materials, crafts and architecture, Claesson Koivisto Rune create simple forms with the flexibility needed for today's urban lifestyle.

Kaikado

Kaikado is the Kyoto-based old Japanese tea canister manufacturer established in 1875. The handmade caddies have been highly evaluated in Japan and abroad with its refined simplicity and high practicality. Its airtightness allows the caddies to use in many different ways such as the storage for Japanese, English and Chinese tea, coffee, spices, pasta and grain.

Hosoo

Hosoo is the textile manufacturer of Nishijin style of weaving established in the 17th century. Hosoo's new collection, a marriage between traditional weaving technique and modern aesthetics is a luxury material for interior design of space and objects.

Karimoku New Standard

Karimoku, Japan's leading manufacturer of wooden furniture collaborates with international designers to create Karimoku New Standard items, meeting the highest standards of quality and environmental sustainability through utilizing Japanese hardwood. The brand fits well to the individual ways of contemporary living, dedicated to quality and design.

Shibo

Shibo has inherited the traditional tie-dyeing technique that has been generally applied to silk fabric and refined it into Shibo's unique technique for leather and canvas. The beautiful striped patterns and three-dimensional structure on the surfaces of Shibo's modern products can be given by highly skilled craftsmen at Shibo's workshop.

Leciel

Leciel is the Kyoto-based textile manufacturer who has produced natural linen items dyed by Japanese traditional hand-craft techniques. Leciel's new collection of home accessories such as curtains and cushions brings graceful colors and comfort to your space.

Maxray

The Japanese lighting brand, Maxray presents its new selected collection for European market. Each of the presented items, floor lamps and pendant lamps, represents the brand identity as Japanese brand - simplicity and sensibility. They harmonize with various styles of public and private spaces.
